

North Central Public Health District

NCPHD is implementing OHA's modernization framework, distilling and applying concepts and models to our specific work programs. NCPHD's work includes many of the modernization foundational work including collecting health data, identifying environmental health risks, and climate adaptation to mitigate disease, culturally relevant solutions, health and hazard planning, communication and workforce development and community partnerships.